MetaStock

Cutting edge charting
& analysis power

MetaStock leading the way with powerful tools that provide a level of accuracy & precision that has not been possible until now.

MetaStock has long been recognised as the best technical analysis system in the world. Available in both standard End-of-Day and now Real-Time Professional versions, it contains some of the most powerful analysis tools available today.

Use nine of the most widely used charting styles including lines, bars, candlesticks, point and figure and many more to give you an unfair advantage in the market place.

It only takes two commands to arrange your charts just the way you want them:

- Click & Pick
- Drag & Drop

Plot any of MetaStock's 95+ built in indicators in your charts by simply dragging it from the Indicator Quicklist and dropping it into your chart.

Plus, with MetaStock's customisable toolbars, you can shortcut most tasks including opening your watch lists with one click of the mouse as well as apply over 15 line studies to your charts.

Take your Trading to a New Level

Discover the power of MetaStock using the following tools:

Indicator Builder – Using your own or other peoples ideas, you can create, copy, edit and add new indicators as they are developed.

The Systems Tester – Helps you test, optimise and compare how your trading systems performed across one or multiple securities before you risk your hard earned money.

The Expert Adviser – Includes built in trading systems from some of the world's best technical analysts. Display their advice in an instant as well as chart patterns and trading opportunities.

The Explorer – Based on your specific criteria, you can quickly sift through thousands of securities and find those winning trades.

Use the powerful tools of MetaStock to make more precise, more educated successful trading decisions.
